

AMERICA'S FIRST FRONT

LOOKING AT THE WAR IN THE PACIFIC THROUGH FILM

Dear Friends,

Please join U.S. Consul for Press & Culture Eric A. Johnson for a monthly film series to honor the upcoming 65th anniversary of the end of World War II. After introducing each film, the Consul will invite everyone to stay for a discussion to follow. All films will be shown in English with English-language subtitles at the Consul General's Residence on 4 Grodnensky Pereulok.

If you would like to attend one of these film showings, please register at pokazkino@gmail.com. Please mention the film showing you are registering for and provide the Consulate with:

- 1) your full name;
- 2) your phone number;
- 3) the name of the organization where you study or work.

ADVANCE REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. DEADLINES TO REGISTER ARE LISTED BELOW. PLEASE PAY CLOSE ATTENTION TO REGISTRATION PROCEDURES: IF YOU HAVE REGISTERED BUT ARE UNABLE TO ATTEND, PLEASE LET US KNOW. NUMBER OF SEATS ARE LIMITED! TO INSURE ACCESS, PLEASE BRING YOUR PASSPORT TO OUR EVENTS FOR IDENTIFICATION PURPOSES.

If you have any questions, please contact the Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Consulate General in St. Petersburg: +7 (812) 336-7760. Thank you for your interest and cooperation!

Upcoming Films

WEDNESDAY, MAY 26 19:00	The Great Raid (2005): Topic – The Liberation of the Philippines	Deadline to register: FRIDAY, MAY 21
---	---	--

Future Film Showings in September 2010:

- Flags of Our Fathers (2006): Topic – The Battle of Iwo Jima (U.S. point-of-view)
- Letters from Iwo Jima (2007): Topic – The Battle of Iwo Jima (Japanese point-of-view)